"THE ANGLE LAMP"

THE LIGHT THAT NEVER FAILS.

It seems almost incredible that any lamp could be good enough to take the place of electricity on even terms, yet such is the case with the ANGLE LAMP. All over the islands people are throwing away their old lamps and replacing them with this lamp, not merely because it costs about one-tenth as much to maintain (cost is no object to some people) but, beside being infinitely cheaper, it is more brilliant and more reliable in the bargain. It is a revelation to every one who uses it, and simply demonstrates that the old-fashioned lamp was a barbarous contrivance. THE ANGLE LAMP never smokes, smelts or gives any trouble. It is lighted and extinguished as easily as gas, and is the idea from every standpoint. We carry these lamps from $1.50 up.

LOAN ACTS OFF TABLE

ACTION OF THE SENATORS
AT THE AFTERNOON SESSION

Bills Read by Title and Referred to Printing Committee—New Territorial Seal
Bill.

In the Senate yesterday afternoon, the majority of the Committee on Public Health and Education reported House bill 9 and Senate bill 43, relating to vaccination. The committee recommended the passage of the first and the indefinite postponement of the Senate bill and, in both instances, the report was adopted.

Mr. Carter reported as follows for the Ways and Means Committee to whom had been referred Senate bill 50:

The bill alters section 820 of the Civil Code by striking out that portion which provides that the assessment value of rented real estate shall be eight years rental, unless manifestly unfair and unjust; but in all other respects the law remains the same.

The (chief justice in his report (page 21) states that this rule was adopted on the assumption that the actual rental was approximately a fair estimate of the market value rental, but values have changed, and most real estate is valued at a higher figure than eight times its rental, with the result that either the eight year rule must be ignored, or else if land leased at its fair rental is assessed on the eight year rule, and other land, because not leased or leased years ago at less than its present fair rental, is assessed at its full value, there is unjust discrimination, and he recommends that the rule be repealed.

The Committee believes that there is considerable land in the Territory leased many years ago which at present is assessed at nowhere near its market value.

We, therefore, recommend the adoption of the bill, DAVID KANUHA, S. E. KAIUE, G. R. CARTER.

This report was laid on the table. Mr. Carter then reported as follows for the Military Committee on Senate bill 28 which was passed in the Senate on March 29:

Your committee finds that the House has amended the bill by striking out that part which provides that one-half of the fine should be paid into the common school fund; and that the Act should take effect on its approval, not after its publication.

The introducer of the bill accepts both these amendments, and the committee believes that as there is no common school fund, it is proper that any money received from the fines should go into the public treasury.

The committee, therefore, reports unanimously its approval of the amendments made, and recommends that the Senate notify the House that it concurs in the amendments.

CLARENCE L. CRABBE, DAVID KANUHA, L. H. KAHILINA, G. R. CARTER.

The report was adopted and Mr. White moved to adjourn. There being no second to this motion, Mr. J. Brown moved to take the loan acts off the table. This carried and the general and special loan acts were read by title and referred to the Printing Committee.

Mr. White again moved to adjourn but withdrew his motion at the request of Mr. Baldwin who said there were some little matters of business that should be attended to. Under suspension of rules, Mr. Crabbe reported as follows:

Your Special Committee to whom Senate Bill No. 32 and House Bill No. 24 were referred relating to the Territorial Seal beg leave to report that they have had both bills under consideration, and recommend that they be laid on the table, and herewith submit a new bill in place of said bills which they recommend the Senate to pass.

C. L. CRABBE, J. T. BROWN, W. M. WHITE.

The substitute bill was read first time by title and was then set along its usual course. Mr. Baldwin introduced the following resolution:

Resolved, That the sum of $5000 may be inserted in the appropriation or loan bill for the extension or improvement of the Walluku and Kahului water works.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Public Lands and, at 3:50 o'clock, the Senate adjourned.

Free Breathing

Many people who are troubled with frequent colds and find that it is so often much easier to breathe through the mouth than through the nose, do not realize that the trouble is most probably a form of catarrh which if it is taken in time may be easily checked. Anyone who is troubled in this way should lose no time in consulting a specialist for the relief given by free passage of the breath through the nostrils is worth much to obtain.

Exposure to wet, dampness and cold invariably results in a sudden chill, which if not attended to immediately will cause a cold. By mixing a teaspoonful of Perry Davis' PAIN-KILLER in half a glass of warm water or milk, the whole system will be heated and the danger of cold avoided. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25c. and 50c.

AGAPIETRO GARCIA

FOUGHT WITH AGUINALDO
AGAINST THE SPANIARDS

Is Now on the Kintuck on His Way Home After Two Years in the American Schools.

Agapietro Garcia, a Filipino, 18 years of age, is one of the passengers on the Kintuck, bound for Manila. While a mere strip of a boy, Garcia is wide awake and thoroughly conversant with the problems that confront his country. He was a soldier at thirteen, fighting under Aguinaldo against the Spaniards, and is well acquainted with the characteristics of that artful dodger.

When the Spaniards surrendered the archipelago to the forces of the United States, young Garcia with hundreds of others of his countrymen, hailed the event with joy, as marking the end of dissensions in the islands and giving opportunity for ambitious Filipinos to enter into business and industrial pursuits. When it was found that the cunning Aguinaldo had led his soldiers against the Americans, Garcia pronounced himself an amigo and went at once into the employment of the United States quartermaster's department.

It was while at his duties in this office that Lieut. W. L. Lemon of the First Washington Regiment, met him. Struck with the brightness and honesty of the now thoroughly Americanized amigo, Lieut. Lemon asked him to go with the regiment to the United States as his brother and live with him at his home in Central Washington.

Agapietro Garcia threw down his pen and said: "I will." From that moment he was "Pete" Lemon, the mascot of the regiment. He accompanied the regiment home and, after it disbanded in Seattle, went with Lieut. Lemon to his home at North Yakima.

At that place, he entered school at once, knowing scarcely a word of English. He made rapid progress in his studies and was soon able to write prize taking compositions in English. He became a favorite and was an example of politeness and decorum wherever he might be.

Having mastered English sufficiently to talk it fluently, and having the Spanish and various Filipino dialects, "Pete" began to think of the opportunities for him in his old home. He had also felt the pinch of a northern winter and longed for the scent of the tropics. He also had to confess a growing homesickness, a desire to see his father and tell old friends of the wonderful country that sent such men as Dewey and Lawton.

Therefore, he is returning for a period of three years, after which he expects to go to the States again and complete his education. He hopes to be of great service to his adopted country when he reaches the Philippines, by telling his friends of the good qualities of the American people and the government of the United States. He may prepare a lecture on "The Americans" and deliver it through the country in the native tongue. While in Hawaii, he will visit the Legislature, "to be able," he says, "to tell his people how the Hawaiians under the American flag make their own laws."

Garcia bears the best of letters to Dean Worcester of the Philippine Commission and hopes to be of use to the Americans who are working in the Orient to solve the Philippine problem.

A GOOD THING.

The people of Honolulu may be depended upon to appreciate a good thing when they see it.

This is evidenced by the interest manifested in the superb "Bird's Eye View of Honolulu" lately made and published by KING BROS.

With a view to making larger and better photos of Hawaiian subjects, this enterprising firm has been experimenting along new lines for the past year with most gratifying results.

A feature of these productions is the beautiful cloud effects, which, it will be noticed, do not rob the landscape of any of its values. This was one of the hardest problems of all to solve, as anyone versed in photography will appreciate.

Owing to the unusual size of these pictures (7x30) no paper on which to print it can be procured short of the factory, which fact causes the delay in filling orders. It is hoped, however, that the steamer of the 30th inst. will bring a fresh supply.

SEATTLE BEER.

The ever popular Rainier beer is becoming a household word and "will you have a glass of Seattle" is more often heard than anything else. The Criterion Saloon has the beer on tap or in bottles.
